Online 48 Hours. Abandoned At Birth.

There seems to be this built in desire to know who our biological parents are. I also believe that we have a built in desire to know our heavenly father. It has been stated that we all have a God shaped vacuum inside of us that can only be filled by God. So how did we get separated from God in the first place? In my understanding it was not about God leaving us, it was that we were born into this world separated from God, spiritually speaking.

That is why you have verses in the Bible that say things like, "For God so loved the world that He gave his only begotten son so that those that believe in Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

In a way it is a simple concept. It is all about coming home. It is about getting to know your creator. I am not talking religion but I am talking relationship. So when a person comes to God the thing that I believe God says is, "welcome home." The neat thing about this home is that we never have to leave it; it's our home, forever. I should get my friend Colin Wiebe to write a song for us called, "Forever home."
